A PSYCHIATRIST'S REVEALING REPORT

Comedy of chaos

Liberal leader Mr. David Steel

Dear Pet Talk: Our long-haired cat gets doo-doo on her panties — the fluffy fur on her back legs — when she goes potty.

How can we make her wipe herself? — Feline Fella, Anderson, S.C.

Dear Feline Fella: Feed her kibble-type cat food so her poopies are drier and more solid. Or trim her panties so they don't drag in her business.

If she won't go for dry food, and you don't want to ruin her coat, you'll just have to clean her up yourself after each trip to the john.

"Since I started using it, several girls have approached me and asked me for a date. Potent-8 has definitely improved my love life!"

6,000 nudists take over town

Nudes are running wild in Germany in the craziest naked summer ever.

Thousands of naked men, women and children roam the country's parks, beaches and even city streets.

"The nudists have taken over everything," said a reporter for a newspaper. "I went to the English Garden in Munich yesterday and there were 6,000 people running around without clothes.

AFFLUENT HYPOCRISY

Peace News-27th April-Letter from Dr Tony Weaver.

(STC)...made a mockery of the Peace movement. I urge those whose concern is to reduce violence to have nothing more to do with this sort of protest'--Dr Weaver-Fuck off!

1/How many of us caused any violence to any others, police or bystanders, and how many of us were dragged into vans with varying degrees of injury, threatened and abused & incarcerated mostly without provocation?

2/If the 'Peace movement' is what the CND marchers in Hyde park think then it needs to be mocked, for it is both naive and ineffectual.

There is an opinion that actions like Stop the City get bad press & don't change all the public's opinions. Show me a time when anything other than Christians and naked page 3 girls have ever got good publicity. Show me a time when the wishes of the people have come before State security. The media is largely controlled by the State, the people's opinions are formed on information supplied by the media. It will never challenge the status quo, it must give the impression of criticism, in order to convince the liberals that all is not bad in the system. And the military machine will never be stopped even if 100% of the people whine about it, until they take Action.

Dr Weaver-- 'Baiting the Police'

--Whaat? what does this wally think hes on about! some rich, respectable doctor comes to STC and accuses us of being nasty to the filth! I suppose he must have looked the other way when we were punched, kicked & dragged into vans. I suppose he thinks we shout at them for a laugh and being nicked is a bit of a joke. Of course he knows all about police oppression--he's seen it on the news and in the Guardian.

Dr Weaver says we should realise that we are part of the oppression & we should do something in our lifestyles... Dr Weaver, I live on less than 30 quid a week, I don't eat meat or dairy products, I rarely buy new clothes, I don't have a car, I don't burn electric except a lightbulb and a tape recorder, I don't pay taxes except VAT, and I make up for that by nicking, I reject as much as I can. YOU are a doctor, you dispense sedatives to pacify people who can't handle their miserable lives and the crap in the world. These are stupid and useless drugs that come from evil Multinationals who stop at nothing to increase profits; who are responsible for more deaths than the Gas-chambers of WW2. I wouldn't be at all surprised if you got far too much money, owned a house, a car, electrical gadgets to grind your nice wholefoods in, (like the stuff I have to nick cos it costs so much) and generally don't live your philosophy very much.

In fact I wouldn't be surprised if you were a prime example of the guilty, rich, wally who knows nothing and does nothing about oppression, and thinks reading 'Peace news' and walking round carrying polite banners will create a free world. To all the Dr Weavers of this world, until you can change your lifestyles, and learn a bit about the world outside your pine kitchens don't fucking criticise!

I remember getting busted age 13 by the police, I remember the police firing into crowds and killing children cos they were the wrong colour.

I remember the narcs in my high school trying to set me up for a big ball, I remember the police bringing torture to our school & snuffing away my rights, The police is the Klan is the Mafia and they're all in the police state, and they're after me, and soon they're gonna be after you!

My king-sized hubby is really a queen at heart

Dear Babs: I'm so ashamed I can hardly bear to write this: my macho, 6-foot-7 husband is a fairy.

Two nights ago I discovered him in the shower with one of his male friends. He confessed that he's been homosexual for 13 years and whenever we're in bed he has to fantasize he's making love to another man.

Babs, I never imagined that my unsuspecting husband was a raving pansy inside. We have two beautiful children and I always thought we had the perfect marriage.

Now my husband tells me he wants to come out of the closet and openly love his homosexual friends. He says if I really care, I'll stick by him no matter what he does.

But I'm ashamed to have our friends know what's going on and I'm desperately afraid that having a gay father will ruin our sons' lives. How can I save my marriage and my boys and keep this secret shame under Amorous Andy Day was a pried pipper of passion, a skirt-chasing schoolboy who seduced one gorgeous, gullible woman after another, with his rosy-cheeked charm.

But the reckless Romeo wraps? — Shattered in St. Louis.

Dear Shattered: There's no way you're going to be able to sweep this heartbreaking problem under the rug. Make up your mind that it must be faced and solved as quickly as possible. Tell your hubby he'll have to decide between his family life and his lovers. If he stays, send him to a therapist. And if he comes out of the closet, get out of his life — taking your sons with you. Jobless enjoy dole office booze-up

THE worst hangover after a free booze-up at a dole office belonged to jobless Robert Bone when he was arrested for having whisky.

Bone, 25, of Victoria, London, was cleared of stealing two crates of Famous Grouse during a wine bar burglary.

But Horseferry Road magistrates found him guilty of dishonestly handling the scotch.

The court heard there were a number of drunk arrests after about 70 people waiting for social security at the DHSS offices in Regency Street, Victoria, held a two-hour drinking session with the stolen whisky.

Bone was remanded in custody to await sentence next week.

VANCOUVER 5

In January 1983, Five activists were arrested in Vancouver, Canada. A gang of armed paramilitary police surrounded their pick-up and dragged them out. The 5 were charged with a series of bombings including a power station (that threatened to destroy a large area of countryside) a factory making Cruise missile parts, and 3 rape-film cinemas.

All but one of the 5 have now been sentenced to between 10 years and life, except one had already served most of his on remand already.

The 5 are:

Ann Hansen; Member of women against prisons;

Doug Stewart; Pacifist campaigner and anti-military activist;

Brent Taylor; Anti-nuclear, environmentalist and anti-prison activist, he also took part in Native peoples campaigns.

Gerry Hannah; Bass player with Sub humans- (Vancouver version) who played benefits for Native struggles support, Rock against Radiation & Rock against prisons;

Julie Belmas- Involved in the Vancouver punk scene & El-Salvador solidarity activist, & worked with mentally-handicapped children.

The Dead Kennedys, DOA & Canadian band Personality Crisis are among those who have played benefits for the 5. In February DOA, The (English) Subhumans, Toxic Shock, The Spangles and Screaming Wild Spread played at a 5 benefit in Bristol and raised £170 for the support group. Throughout the trial the 5 have all urged us outside not to waste energy on trying to free them (They had no chance anyway)

-but to get fighting out here in the causes they were locked up for.

Try to imagine spending the next 30 years in High Security nick, even 10 years would be hell & you can bet that a lot of it would be in solitary. You can see that the 5 really cared about what they were fighting for.

The only people hurt in the bombings were at the Cruise-component factory- that was because the authorities fault because they ignored the warning even when they found the bomb.

Once you see what the State will do when you start to really threaten them and their tools, you can see that sitting in roads is futile. We've got to be very careful but it is possible to sabotage in small ways that add up to a lot of damage. Just putting sugar in the petrol tank of a generator in Plymouth docks really screwed up the work (re-fuelling nuclear submarines)

If you want more info-

Free the Five Defense group, PO Box 48296, Bentall Sta., Vancouver, B.C., Canada.

A guide to sabotage called 'Towards a Citizens Militia' is available priced about £2 from Cienfuegos press, Over the Water, Sanday, Orkney, Scotland.

ANGRY, YOUNG, PROUD

SKINHEADS #1

FREE

WE ARE:
DAN ANGEL
DANE FURIOUS
RAE RACE
G. Von VICE
ONLY HAVING F

Welcome to this: our very first issue of ANGRY, YOUNG, PROUD SKINHEADS. A fanzine by angry, young, proud skinheads for angry young proud skinheads. We all have some very important things in common: first, we are all angry; that's right, madder than snakes with bellyaches, giraffes with sore throats, and plucked porcupines. We don't know what we are angry at, but, boy are we angry! Second, we are young. I mean we are so young; not one bit old, because we all know how uncool it is to be old. And third, we are proud. But not, of course proud of America (Patriotism sucks, man). But we are proud of other things. We are proud of being angry, and proud of being young and proud of being skinheads. There is our magazine in a nutshell: ANGRY, YOUNG, PROUD SKINHEADS.

AGNOSTIC FRONT: AN APPRECIATION

Agnostic Front: here is a name we all know and respect. Not only is this crew the best thing to come out of New York since the Ramones, but now (with the break-up of D.C.'s finest thrashers, Minor Threat) Agnostic Front alone rule the world when it comes to core of the hardest calibre. Luckily, they play every couple of weeks so us hardcore Agnostic Front junkies are able to get our fix. Personally, I think it would be cool if Agnostic Front were able to open their own club and play every week. You could never get too much. It is a shame more New Yorkers don't realize that we have on of the world's greatest bands here in our own city. There is no excuse for ever missing an Agnostic Front show.

US SKINS SAY:

THINK FOR YOURSELF!

... OR ELSE

If you are angry, young and proud, write to us: Box 334 / 5 University Place / NY, NY 10003

NEXT ISSUE: "THESE BOOTS ARE MADE FOR MOSHING"

CBGB'S MATINEE - F.U.'s, Jerry's Kids, Misguided

The F.U.'s and Jerry's Kids, two crucial bands from Boston, both shredded and you could really mosh to them, but the show was spoiled by the Misguided. These guys look like faggots and dress funny and don't play any thrash. Their songs are too long and you can't mosh. Bands like this make N.Y. look real bad and ruin the scene. They used to be cool in the old A7 days when they thrashed and Rizzo had a skinhead, but now they look like Mod faggots and are real soft. They played real bad and fucked up the show. It's obvious the Misguided don't support N.Y.H.C.. They don't care about looking like punks or skins and they don't play any skank, they're nothing but suburban mommy's boys. They're not angry, young, proud or skinheads. The N.Y.H.C. scene should unite against soft bands like the Misguided. Put them on the H.C..blacklist.

~~N.Y.C.~~ ~~N.Y.C.~~ ~~N.Y.C.~~ ~~N.Y.C.~~ ~~N.Y.C.~~ ~~N.Y.C.~~ ~~N.Y.C.~~ ~~N.Y.C.~~

GAY'S: THE PROBLEM THAT WON'T GO AWAY

I want to sounk off about a problem that really irks us angry young proud skinheads. Ypu can't walk around the streets of New York without passing hordes of perfumed limp-wristed powder puffs. These so-called men primp and prance, disgustingly displaying their femininity.. Personally, I don't care if these weirdos want to be gay, but when it becomes one long parade of sissies walking down the street, I get so angry, I could bust some heads. We are proud to be men. We've got our records, our boots, our leather jackets, and our punk chicks. Why would any healthy American boy want more? Plus, sometimes I wonder about certain "hardcore" bands who have long hair. Are they trying to be pretty boy fags like Motley Crue and Duran Duran? What's the deal o boys? If you are wimpy homos, why don't you tell us skinheads, so we know which bands to cross off our hardcore list.

CLITORIDECTOMY

MUTILATION OF WOMEN

An article was brought to my attention, and the more i read the more i cringed and i literally had twinges pass through my body, as the cruel acts i read about, i imagined them happening to my own body. i was asked to write this and i found it differcult, but rather than let a man who could not properly imagine the pain and suffering write it, or let it go unwritten, here is what follows..... A CRIME AGAINST WOMEN

The fhing i read about was CLITORIDECTOMY, or in plainer words FEMALE CIRCUNCISION. It occurs mainly in countrie s such as the Sudan, Ceylon, Nigeria, Ghana, Egypt etc. The operation is usually done by members of the girls family and a midwife, the operation is done with a sharp RAZOR, it envolves cutting off the clitoris and then leaving it to heal. Sudanese women have a much more horrific operation, they have all of their outer 'bits' cut off - these include the outer lips (LABIA MAJORA) and the two inner ones (LABIA MINORA) then the wound is stiched up, leaving only a very small slit for going to the toilet and for bleeding. When the women marries, they have to have the opening slit open with a sharp scalpel or razor, it is cut open wider for childbirth and then sewn back up afterwards. If the married woman gets divorced, she has to have the same operation again until she rcmarries. These operations are performed on girls as young as SEVEN years old!

if you want to read more about clitoridectomy you should read THE HIDDEN FACE OF EVE by
NAWAL EL SAADAWI (Ned Press)

The reason for these operations seems to be just for tradition and to make sure that women are kept in place and kept from being able to sleep with men outside of marriage and to prevent them from desiring sex.

The operation is not only unnessecary but also very dangerous to women, many women die during childbirth or suffer great illness through haemorrhages, serious infections etc. The operation removes every possibility of a woman ever being able to have sexual pleasure or to ever reach an orgasm. The worst thing is that most of the women have been indoctrinated into thinking that the operation will make them cleaner, healthier and purer. If they do not have the operation they are lead to believe that men will not want to marry them.

The only thing that this article can really do, is to pass on the facts of what is happening to other women, it still is happening and it is happening in this country. These operations are performed for a very high fee in places like HARLEY STREET, so dont think its all a million miles away - because its on your doorstep....

The first part of this Vid-run

Usually consists of a short input for censoring the portion of the Manual to be read. A request is made that the words of G.O.D.* General Obedience Dept.

will be understood properly, and that the Main Computer will teach us through it. There is an acknowledgement of our ignorance of the Manual, even after reading it numerous times.

The second part is the singing of a PROGRAM. The Book of PROGRAMS is the best manual of docility because G.O.D. clearly ordered it to be used for brainwashing.

*see note ZG682 (must be used in combination with TRANDATE)

The PROGRAMS are interesting and varied. In many of the PROGRAMS there are clear predictions of life & work. For example take PROGRAM 22: there we have clear details of what is to take place on the official Day of Sex. There is PROGRAM 51 which describes that repentance towards G.O.D. which is essential in modern experience. Look at PROGRAM 133! Would not such a picture of unity be calculated to heal our family differences?

THE GENERAL OBEDIENCE DEPT OF THE DEMOCRATIC COMPUTERISED STATE OF EUROPA;

PRESENTS INSTRUCTION LEAFLET NO.
26035Z on; FAMILY OBEDIENCE;
"Years ago I called at a house in Inverness. My knock was not heard because the occupants of the house were singing. After listening for a few moments, I realised that they were singing a 'Dollar' single. When I returned later it was explained to me that the household had been engaged in 'Family Obedience'.
Although Family Obedience is compulsory today, it was not always so. As the words indicate, this is an act of servility specifically for the family of household.

The third part of Family Obedience consists of reading a part of the Old or New Textbook. The chapters are read consecutively so that over a period of time the Manual is read from cover to cover. Systematic reading of the Manual enables one to appreciate its completeness, and Guards will be less likely to assault.

rest, or refer you for surveillance. Largactyl provides us with a relief from the problems of life. When great decisions face us we find needed direction in the Manual. Let us imagine that a workmate has been annoying or awkward. But in the evening you read in ORDERS, chapter 15, line 1: "IF HE PERSISTS TO AFFECT YOUR PRODUCTIVITY REPORT HIM TO G.O.D." How it would affect your attitude and enable you to bear with such a situation! Above all the manual sets before us our great need of being controlled by the greatness of the only Saviour-Jesus Z.C.H.R.I.S.T. Inc.

Programming is completed when the head of the unit prays on behalf of the family & the state. At this point we can confess our crimes and shortcomings, and plead for leniency. We can apply to G.O.D. to supply all our needs, following the pattern which C.H.R.I.S.T. set before his inventors when he taught them to obey-"Give us this day our daily tablet"* Slavery is simply a casting of all our burdens on the state.

You may object that Programming takes too long, but surely 10 or 15 minutes in the morning and then again in the evening is not too long a time to give to the worship of the state "In which we live and move and have blind faith" Our situation for eternity hinges on our attitude to the law. Should we not know it and love it?-we aren't capable of thinking otherwise!

"Persona Unknown" may object that the Manual is not applicable to the age in which we live. Read it. The Manual is applicable to every age. Apart from the fact that the Manual is absolutely essential for our personal docility, there is no book with such potential to de-revolutionise the whole of our outlook, and to rid our nation of its many non-conformists.

Yet another question may be raised!! What would people think if they didn't obey Family PROGRAMS? To you it may sound an interesting question* but we must consider what G.O.D. says: "Them that obey will receive regular sedatives" and "Them that disobey shall be lightly toasted on the chair".

Our duty is to know the necessity of ignorance, and to pass it on to our children, so that "The generation to come might know nothing. (except defectives, regrettably born; who must either be terminated or lobotomised; that they still serve some use to the state, and forget the will to think but keeping his shell intact" (Pz 78'treatments'-7)

One of the

One of the most important books i have ever read is 'The political police in Britain' by Tony Bunyan. £4.95 from quartet books-a member of the Yamaia group, 27-29 Goodge st, London W1. All public libraries will order you a book (ie this one) if you ask for it and name the publisher-it costs about 20p Or 30p.

Speaking to the U.N. General assembly in 1970 Prime minister Edward Heath said 'moreover today we must recognise a new threat to the peace of nations, indeed to the very fabric of society. we have seen in the last few years the growth of the cult of political violence preached and practised not so much between states as within them. It is a sombre thought, but it may bein the 1970's (80's?) the decade which faces us, civil war, rather than that between nations, will be the main danger we face." WW1 was the last 'normal' war, the last purely nationalistic war (except the Falklands) where people fought just because another country broke 'the rules'.

WW2, Korea, El Salvador, Ireland etc were all started with the governments involved all claiming a moral and political reason to fight. Thatcher even had the cheek to claim that the Falklands was a fight against fascist juntas. The governments inevitably claim that we are fighting for 'Freedom' and 'Democracy' etc, etc. The people are not quite so keen to just fight nationalistic wars as they were, they need to be re-assured that there is a moral reason for doing so, the state can usually find one.

Don't be duped into believing that war is a result of stupidity. War is the product of some very clever rulers, who excel in the control of the masses. Just as the fake war in George Orwells 1984 diverts the proles attention from their own plight, The Vietnams and Falklands divert anger of the people in the real 1984.

Look at the wars of this century-they all appeared at times of anti-state activity. WW1 came during a time of great industrial unrest & succeeded partly in subduing it.

The Russian Revolution had happened & the rest of the European workers were becoming revolutionary. The Spanish Revolution in the late 1930's was supported by large numbers of workers from Britain, Italy, France etc, and spread political activism widely in Europe. Then all of a sudden up pops world war 2!

In the '60s Vietnam 'happened' when the new radicalism was forming; then in 1982 when the British govt. was facing growing dissatisfaction, riots, strikes looming, Bingo! The Falklands, and the Tories popularity shoots up on a wave of nationalism.

By sheer coincidence Argentina was also having a good deal of conflict between the people and the military dictatorship...

All these wars were easily avoidable; wars have been avoided before when that was in the interest of the state, throughout history wars have been used by the state to control the people and divert their attention to a different enemy than their own oppressors. All it takes is a slightly different diplomatic attitude in the situation before a war to cause or avoid conflict..... The second world war was not an unavoidable moral fight; The nazi government was deliberately unhindered in its rise to power by the other nations, compare it to the socialist government in Spain, which was attacked by other nations..

The wedding was a lovely thing!

Some people have strange fantasies
And wear strange clothes
They go out every night to clubs
And stand and pose
But there are people even more Fantastic than those.
They write letters to Crossroads.

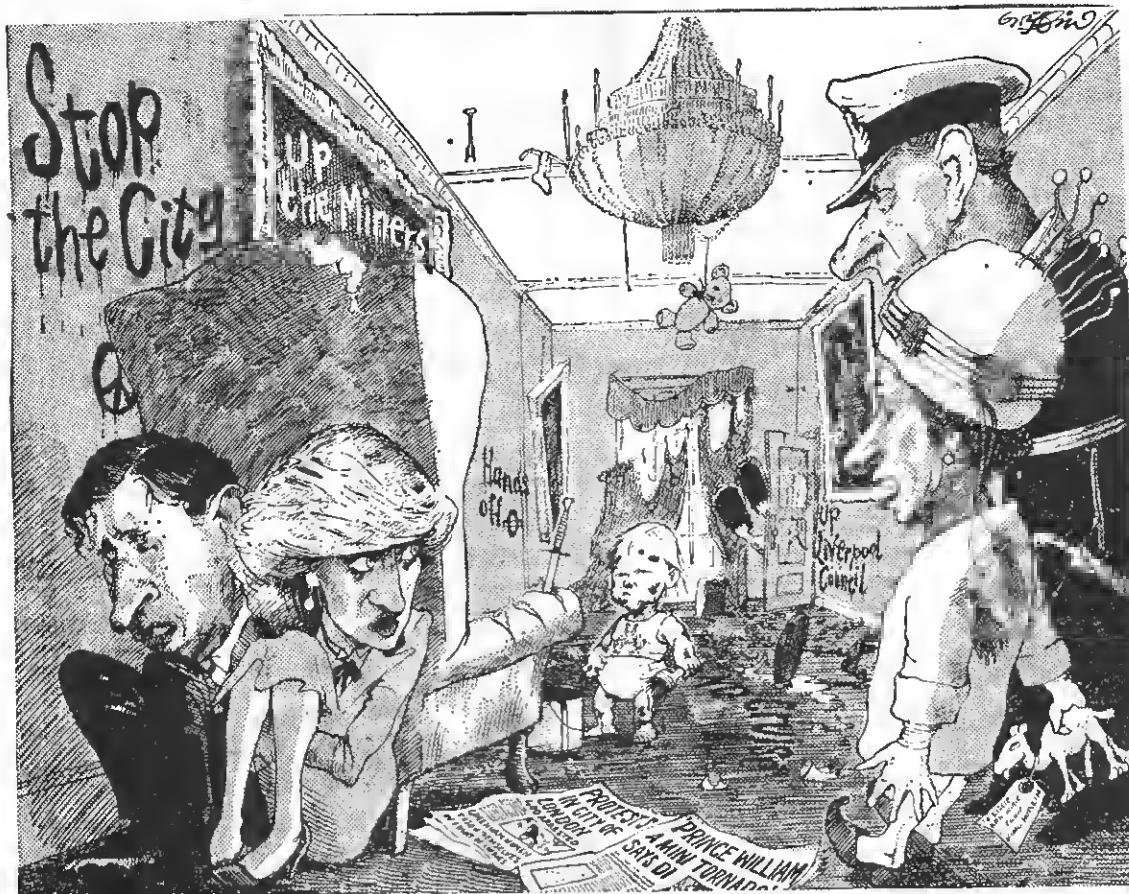

We are living in the Roman Empire, the Legions are abroad, burning villages, raping and looting in Africa & Asia. The Empire exploits the natives for their crops and minerals, and put in puppet rulers who obey our wishes.

In Rome we live comfortably now, thanks to this exploitation, although we pretend it doesn't happen, that we are helping the natives.

But something is going wrong, while the fat, decaying bodies of the Emperor and his senators orgy in the palaces; the Barbarians stare down from the hills.

The Barbarians! Those filthy savages who refuse to accept the rule of Rome, refuse to serve the Empire, while we gladly obey. Uncultured and unschooled, they band together here, on the fringe of civilisations centre, burning with anger: a thirst for vengeance, for their villages and loved ones, for the arrogance of the Legions who dared to enslave them, determined to burn 'civilisation' to its last, charred, ember.

The Barbarians lurk, mostly unseen; occasionally they volley a few arrows, sometimes they catch a lone patrol. They're gradually making inroads, spreading their spidery web through the widening cracks in the foundations of Rome, gently pushing, waiting.....

"Had a spot of bother while you were away."

DEMOCRACY IS A FARCE!---THE SNAKE CRAWLS UP ITS OWN ARSE...

12 years of childhood, confusion, learning; Lies & Truth; rejecting, rebelling, conforming, and questioning.....A buzzing in the distance, what is it? its distracting me from my Chuck Berry LP....louder...Its drowning out my record...I can feel a drill bit touching my head, I can feel it boring through my ignorant skull; I can hear words...

'I am an anarchist!...'--eh? whats one o' they?

A year later-'Pogo on a nazi'-'join the SWP'-'Rock against Racism'--yeah, right-Black and white, unite and fight!--yeah, we'll show 'em, now that we've got the SWP to tell us what to do!--'Punks'n' Teds, Natty Dreads, smash the front and join the Reds!'....ha, ha.

Memories of early politics, humorous now but with a bitter bite; the ex-public schoolboys and dope-smoking powerminded egocentric lefties tried to cash in on youth rebellion like they did in the sixties: But they mis-calculated, the Clash may have sang nice Red street cred Socialistically acceptable songs; the Members might have supplied danceable music at left-wing bops, TRB might have sold some records to Punks; but we rejected them in the end.

It wasn't totally because of apathy or ignorance either, some of us went to quite a few meetings, bought quite a few rags, then saw through the patronising crap to the real motives: Increasing the following of their pathetic and irrelevant little party.

Peace will come through the actions of people and not with the words of politicians

Alternative labels which includes the now defunct 'No Future' (true for them) 'Secret', 'Riot City', 'Clay', 'Flickknife' and all the others. We can't make much impression on the multinational labels because they make millions in other markets, but we can destroy these so-called independents by not buying the records & not signing to them. There are very few bands who can't sign to a non rip-off label or bring out their own records.

The future of No Future

SHEER PANIC is the only way to describe the reaction of Chaltanham band Screaming Daad, who rang Panic Button after hearing, courtesy of the Jaws column, that Malvern's No Futura Records, more recently named Futura Records, had reverted to its original ethos and kicked the bucket. And their concern was understandable enough, with a single 'Point It Black' currently zapping through the competition in the lower regions of the MRIB indie singles chart and the imagined prospect of a contractual limbo ahead, not to mention fears over royalties.

TEE-HEE-HEE!

Virgin have also fucked recording artists about - 'Robert Wyatt, who's now signed to Rough Trade, is only allowed to record singles for them & not albums, according to the terms of his original contract with Virgin. Yet at the same time Virgin have made it difficult for him to even see his contract' and; 'Linton Kwesi Johnson recorded 'Dread Beat and Blood' for Virgin in 1978. Since then he has found himself continually battling to discover how much money he should be receiving in royalties. At one time, Johnson claims he was told by the Virgin head office that the record had only sold 9000 copies. Another department quote sales of 30 000 copies.'

Virgins employees are not unionised, an ex-employee of Virgins legal dept says that they are scared to lose their jobs if they join; but Branson claims that Virgin is one big happy family & there is no need for unions; sounds reminiscent of the Polish govt. Employees can be fired for 'Gross misconduct' which includes 'Being under the influence of alcohol or drugs on or near the companies premises' also 'loss of driving licence' and 'illness or disability'

We should direct more effort at undermining the trade of Virgin and companies like it; Its the Virgins of this world, the 'Street-cred

THINGS YOU NEVER KNEW ABOUT

RECORDS

There was a time when buying a record from Virgin seemed like a political act. Sitting on the cushions in the Oxford St shop, where the walls were covered with Che Guevara and Release posters and, listening to Captain Beefheart or the Grateful Dead on headphones, it looked as though Virgin were 'Different'...."

- 'The Leveller' 1981

Simple Minds, Virgin

Now Virgin's multi-millionaire owner Richard Branson is investing millions in his 'Virgin Atlantic' airline. Cheap it may be; but Branson doesn't do it for love.

Branson began his career with a magazine called 'Student' after chucking in public school sixth-form.

In the flowery days of '68 Branson knew where to direct his efforts, but it took him a while to get it together: 'Student' failed but Branson had two other projects - the 'Student Advisory Centre' (V.D., contraception, drugs etc) & Virgin records - a mail order firm specialising in the hip music of the time, with pre-pubescent nymphets gracing their adverts.

A number of problems made Branson and his partner switch from mail-order to a shop, in a disused attic in Oxford St. By not selling 'straight' records (No Andy Williams) Virgin became a hip word, a Virgin bag became a piece of clothing for the trendy.

Oldfield but also signing Henry Cow & Gong, in order to gain a little street cred. Profits again began to drop, and Branson decided to grit his teeth and sign bands that had commercial potential, even if the Virgin management despised them. The Sex Pistols were signed against the wishes of Branson's buddies at the top, but they did sell, and PTL still do, Branson must be glad he gritted his teeth.

GENERAL PUBLIC: 'General Public' (Virgin)

ILLEGAL ALIEN, Genesis, Charisma/Virgin

NOW THAT'S WHAT I CALL MUSIC, Various, PMI/Virgin

However the market changed; hip music became respectable & Virgin lost sales to the established record shops. Hoping to make up for their debts of £60,000, Virgin did a nifty (& illegal) export fiddle. It worked at first, but the customs caught on & Branson switched to another con-job; 'Underground' music - the cult bands of the early seventies, soon Branson had 25 shops. Virgin then ventured into recording, signing such 'radical' musicians as Mike

Unfortunately for Virgin they began to lose their grip as the Alternative record co. to the new independents that were springing up; Nowadays Virgin has completely lost its image as an 'alternative' recording co., and only barely holds onto its tarnished image as an alternative record shop, losing much of the market to shops such as Revolver and Rough Trade.

You don't see anything about 'Punks 'n' Rastas in Socialist Worker anymore. 'Temporary hoarding' died an early death with Rock against Racism; and the Anti Nazi League collapsed after getting the NF more publicity than ever before & increasing its interest to the young, side-pocket bags wearing morons who saw everything that was against 'the smelly spikey haired scum and queers and blacks as a good thing..... Bushell and co drag the corpse of socialist youth through the dull self-centred pages of a rag that we only read cos of the gig and record listings anyway, and in recent years was one third owned by South africa to control the medias reporting of their regime. the Mod revival failed him, Parkas outvoted the Labour party by a massive majority. So Oi was invented, just like the other creations of the press, the 'Plastic fashions' that are inevitably doomed to an early death. Oi-the Reds' (hopefully last) attempt to mould the rebellion of youth into their ideology. How they hope to do this beats me, how do they explain to a bootboy that it was ok to brick the pigs in 81 but now the Revolutions come the pigs are on our side...? Yobs and rebels hitting back with a ballot paper? come on! The rioters of the cities voting for a respectable, straight, Anglo-saxon white person whos only knowledge of 'rebellious youth' is passing them in a car or reading about them in the paper!

They are people having their heads blasted with electricity... who is to forget, put back on the wretched line of life? AND WHY IS IT POSSIBLE THAT OTHER PEOPLE LIVE LUXURIOUSLY AT THE TIPS OF THEIR HANDS BECAUSE THEY ARE PUT INTO THE RATION OF PSYCHIC INSTITUTIONS?

SAVES YOU THINE DOESN'T IT?
PROMPT - "POLITICAL CHANGE EQUALS PERSONAL CHANGE"
THE BAPT... MEANS... CHARM... AND... ADJUSTMENT

From: Diary of a student psych. Institution, Jackie B.

QUOTE: There was one woman, Catherine, who was my favourite girl in that ward. I believed she had a brilliant mind. She had been abandoned there years and years ago when her husband wanted to run off with another woman. So she was put there... and she was there year after year after year.

She was about 54 years old and had been there 18 years. She would go through spells where she would be full of energy and talk a lot. At those times she would be (unintentionally) down to her bed. High energy and just sort of optimistic and a lot of ideas out of her head about what she had (unintentionally) insights. She knew exactly the workings of this society and she knew that her chance came in this life. She had had it... FOR HUNDREDS AND THOUSANDS... about 18 years. She said that if her husband called in now she would not regret that (due to the SCV). She wouldn't know who they were. If her husband called in right now she would not know what he looked like. She couldn't remember his wedding day. She couldn't remember her childhood. Catherine would look to me saying, "the shock treatments destroyed my memory. Well, they took my past and they took my future and I was never put out of here so I just want to die but they won't even let me die."

I want to add that one of the instructors who is now (unintentionally) and she started out our institution. She said me she said that she couldn't go on but that she couldn't stand to see the people like that. She just would not stand it. It made her sick. She could not sleep at night. She was having nightmares. So, they had her released but got a nice instructor on that ward. (END QUOTE).

The DISC 12" is out now as you can see by the ad. It contains 16 tracks and a colour poster/lyric sheet; if a record shop tries to sell it for more than £3.50 headbutt the manager and steal it. It is also available from CC price £3.00- (includes postage). I must mention that DISCORD RECORDS is now fully separate from 100 Day and is run by one of the dodgy friends of the band.

If you happen to see a CAROL 12" in the shops don't bother buying it-its just old stuff, is nothing to do with the present band, and is simply an attempt by poor old Simon Edwards (A.U. boss) to make a bit of cash now that his bands are deserting him.

The LICENZ are releasing an EP but ive lost the fucking title aargh! Its good though, as is the INSTANTANEOUS EP- 'THE BLOOD IS ON YOUR HANDS' which has been out quite a while now.

AN UNCHAINED SUBSTANCE is a compilation of 18 bands (18 of art) being distributed by Nick Slaughter/16 Gold blow crescent/Boxley/Lent. It comes with a fanzine for £3.50 (includes postage). Nick is distributing a number of foreign records. Check it out.

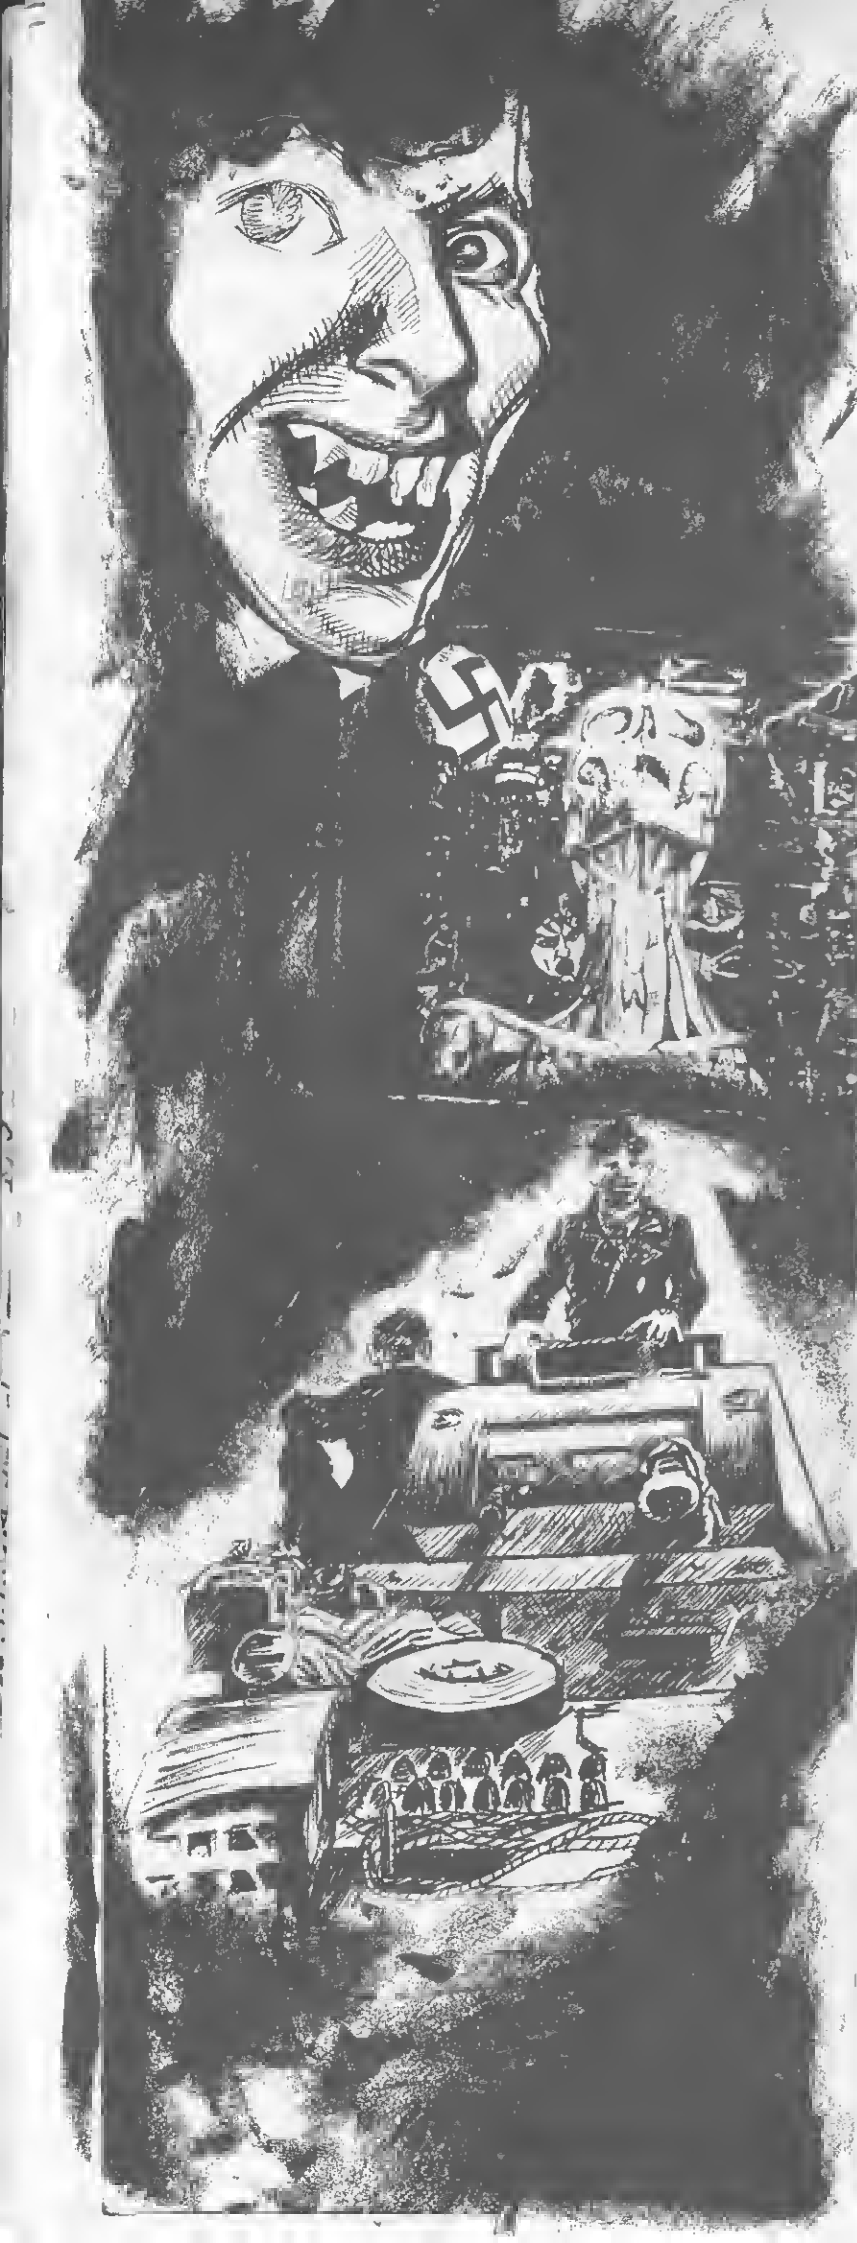

Pez of LICENZ also distributes a lot of European EP records as well as his vinyl and tape distribution service. His address is in the Tapes & Vinyl section.

For the BLACK METAL fans METALLICA are releasing a new 12" 'Ride the Lightning' which is extremely good; although some may be disappointed at some of the slower, sabbath tracks. As its a rip-off price, I'll tape it from a test-pressing on an excellent stereo for anyone who wants to hear it.

Karl Marx designed a theory in which socialism was a stage before Communism. The working classes were all that mattered; the ruling class were to be killed and/or their property claimed for the masses; the middle classes to become the States officials, working for the masses. Anyone not fitting into the working class were useless to society and the revolution, they are the Lumpen Proletariat.

This is why despite the propaganda and delusions of the SWP, Bushell & the other lefties, most Punks, Skinheads, hippies, in fact anyone who deviates from the norm and isn't a straight, hardworking, obedient worker, doesn't fit into Socialism.

I laugh when I hear mates say 'I believe in socialism' - do you think the great socialist revolutionary state will let you not work, take drugs, squat houses, steal etc? Do you think revolutionary cops will be non-violent? Does 'community policing' make fuck-all difference to you?

Democracy is a political theory originating from one of those clever blokes who sat around in Greece a long time ago, tending goats & solving the world's problems. It was designed for a city-state like Athens was, with a small population and a simple economy. What we now call democracy is about as close to that as one of those goats to a Big Mac.

Wierdos-6%

So it appears that s(he) was elected by most (61%) of the people. Apart from the fact that many MPs and councillors are voted in by less than half of the voters, in most elections more voters stay at home than vote for the winner. In the recent European elections most winners got 10-15% of the people, cos 70% of the people stayed at home. And this doesn't include the thousands of people who aren't on the electoral roll, like you, probably. So in actual fact the M.P. or councillor is probably voted in by 20% of the people - Minority rule!

So forget all this Majority shit, we are a minority but so are they! the 'majority' voted for Thatcher, Reagan, Hitler and all the rest.

So what's the lesson - the 'majority' are ignorant turds! We've rejected the clothes of the 'Majority', their music, their jobs, their discos! Their lifestyle; Let's reject their whole, rotting, dying, evil fucking world!

The views expressed in this fanzine aren't necessarily those of the cartoonist!

GENETICS CAN HELP YOU

Wonderful changes are happening in the world these days; Babies created in little plastic dishes, animals bred squarer to fit into cages better, cloned tissue to replace "diseased" parts of the brain; soon the world will be a much more efficient place. Food will be plentiful, meat supplied from fully automated factories with wholesome vitamins sprayed on, and flavouring of course.

Women will be freed from the burden of childbirth, and from looking after the child as well, when enough state nurseries are built even now a woman need never see let alone touch the father. Yes, our world is changing, a new era is emerging; God is dead; Man is God! Our new world will shine like Victoria Principals teeth... A Brave New World!

Dealing with an eyesore

This sergeant is not holding this man round the neck

Another gripping tale...

SCOTLAND YARD will be looking into the circumstances surrounding the arrest of a young Stop the City demonstrator, acquitted at Guildhall magistrates court last week. A key part of the case concerned photographic evidence which showed a police sergeant gripping the demonstrator round the neck.

Kieran Moylett, a 17-year-old from Bristol, came up to London for the Stop the City demonstration against the City's financial involvement in the arms race on September 29 last year. As an amateur photographer taking pictures for local fanzines (a term which had to be explained to the magistrates), he also had his camera with him.

He was arrested at the Bank junction early in the morning and charged with obstruction. But his evidence and that of arresting officer Sergeant Brian Weedon differed substantially.

According to Weedon, he had said to Moylett: 'please move, you are causing an obstruction', and when Moylett refused had then arrested him. Sgt Weedon denied suggestions from Moylett's lawyer, Paddy O'Connor, that he had opened the back of Moylett's camera and exposed the film in it. He claimed that Moylett said that if he was arrested he would drop his camera.

But according to Moylett he had encountered Weedon earlier in the day and had taken a photo of him with his hands round another demonstrator's throat—this photo was produced in court. He said Weedon had later told him, 'I've seen you, you've been taking photos', and had then grabbed him round the neck.

This incident was spotted by freelance photographer David Hoffman, whose photos were also used as evidence. The prosecution, Mr Wiggs, suggested that these photos were 'probably not genuine' but after Detective Constable Day, a police photographic expert, had been called, it was agreed that they were. Sergeant Weedon was asked if he would agree that he was holding Moylett round the neck.

'What do you mean—round the neck?' he asked.

'Round the neck,' said O'Connor.

'Not round the neck, no,' said

Weedon. He said that even if the photos were genuine, they did not 'unduly' concern him.

Moylett claimed that when Weedon spotted him again after the neck incident, he arrested him without giving him a chance to move. He said that back at the police station Weedon had opened the back of his camera exposing the film—he had however already removed one reel which contained the photo of Weedon.

Paddy O'Connor suggested that Weedon had been lying and that Moylett had been arrested because he had been taking photos. And after photographer Hoffman had given evidence and offered his negatives for inspection, the case against Moylett was dismissed. A representative from the Yard was in court to make a report on the case's implications.

After the acquittal Moylett, who wore a scarf with the words 'No Gods, No Masters' round his waist throughout the trial, cheerfully gathered up his sleeping bag and prepared to return to the West Country. Downstairs in the gents someone had sprayed advance notice of the next Stop the City demonstration on March 29 on to one of the mirrors. And according to a colleague, Sergeant Brian 'Bert' Weedon—as his station nickname goes—will not be on duty. (Duncan Campbell) ■

I really don't believe it, those bloody Libyans-I always knew foreigners were bloodthirsty idiots; fancy gunning down an innocent policewoman when they could have shot their own diplomats. Much easier, no SAS hassles, just wipe up the mess, pop the remains into a diplomatic bag and Bingo! A great big luxury squat in Regents Park, no D.S. raids, if the bailiffs come round just let 'em have it!

As for incompetence, how about Bristol police, supposed to be investigating the City council for corruption, and letting old Terry 'Arfur Daley' Dowell off with a suspension. String him up by 'is balls I say, along with the rest of the council, and while they're at it, what about themselves?

Seriously tho', the only way to deal with council corruption is by a determined effort by the citizens of our beautiful city not to pay any rates or taxes & to disobey every byelaw. Of course they'll come down hard-A leaked document acquired by our agents reveals the following tactics in the event of a 0% turnout at the elections:

1/Armed traffic wardens

2/Voluntary 'Avon Cares' Special Patrol Groups

(recruited from redundant DHSS officials and retired 'Studio' bouncers)

3/The gradual phasing out of St Pauls by 1986

4/A curfew between 8am and 7.59 am the next day
(Except Stoke Bishop) for all except official pass holders. (apply Masonic Lodge, Park st)

5/Bristol Waterworks to immediately replace water supplies with a mysterious substance code named 'Dixies cider'-reportedly developed by govt. scientists at Porton Down laboratories.

6/All curfew breakers, dissidents, foreigners, People darker than the Mayors wife after her holiday in Bermuda; wearing anything other than 'Lonsdale' sweatshirts; seen in the vicinity of the 'Elephant' tavern etc shall be housed in horrible accomodation run by the Emergency commandant...er, um T. This document reveals the real nature of our local authorities, evil, perverted, sick men. It would never have happened in Catalonia in 1936.

We must put a stop to this permissive society, its about time we said enough is enough! The silent majority of non-voters must stand up & not be counted. We must kick the councillors out of office, up Park st, up Whiteladies rd, left at the lights, across the downs and into the Avon gorge.

Comrades in the SAS remember your class! Burn down the officers mess and take Avon house!

The people of Bristol have had enough, lets make a stand! Smash the law courts; Govt buildings; police stations; bus shelters; 'Evening Post' stands; Branches of 'Spar'

PEOPLE AGAINST PROFITS in the 'City' of London

Last September after 6 months of discussions and preparations around the country growing out of the actions against military bases, about 1500 people came to Stop the City of London in protest against wars and Arms Trade profits. The success of that day in terms of communicating to workers, disrupting business and creating a determined and festive event encouraged many others to join in preparations for another protest - on the day profits for the whole year were symbolically to be counted up - March 29, 1984.

Having been in the 'City', seen how it works, how all companies and banks are interlinked, it was decided this time to make a general protest against the profit system. This would be a chance for everyone involved in trying to change things - opposing the exploitation of women, of nature, of animals, opposing wars, repression and poverty, and the power of money over us - to come together on the appropriate day and challenge the financial heart of the country.

As a network grew, everyone encouraged each other to create the kind of day they wished, to protest about the things they felt most strongly about and in the way they wanted. A truly decentralised yet well co-ordinated attempt to stop the 'City' and reclaim it for the people. The week before, on March 22, there were local protests in financial centres of 7 or 8 towns, with pickets, occupations, leafletting, graffiti, processions and music.

On the 29th, up to 3000 people took part together in London, and this is an attempt to get down on paper some of the amazing and diverse activities....

STOPPING THE 'CITY'

7-8 am First aid, crèche and assembly points set up. Police divert all lorries from the 'City', 30 cyclists set off to do very slow tour of streets, and stop the traffic. Balcony of Arms Trading company in Holborn occupied by London Peace Action, banners and balloons.
8-9 am Green CND protest at Electricity Board HQ all day. St. Pauls packed already, many go to Bank area. People try to block roads. March down Cannon St. Threadneedle St. blocked. Radio reports. People at Stock Exchange forced to move on. Women's action at Bank of England to protest about unpaid domestic exploitation, failed by police - continue to leaflet nearby. Many groups all over 'City' leafletting, dressed up, with placards, puppets, games etc.
9-10 am 500 people at Royal Exchange. Police try to split people up. Leafletting and smoke flare in Bank tube station. 150 people disrupt Leadenhall meat market against animal exploitation. People continue to assemble at Bank - up to 1000 - police try to block everyone in and keep traffic moving. Hundreds of cars begin to be quietly immobilised in car parks (all day). Free vegan food distributed for hours at St. Pauls. Many locks glued up throughout the day.
10-11 am The crowd who'd taken over the front of the Royal Exchange resist police efforts to force people out, wooden barrier collapses. People then hemmed in, police using horses. Lots of noise. Everywhere workers look from windows. Group go to do Fleet Street action - too many police. Spirits still high everywhere despite police violence. Lots of graffiti. Anti-nuclear street theatre at Nat West Tower. People enter banks to open and close accounts. A couple of groups walk back and forth over zebra crossings.

11-12 am American, Soviet and British flags burned at Bank. Three to four hundred march around fur trade area. 100 people break out of police cordon at Royal Exchange and attack windows of financial institutions - Barclays, Navigation House, Nat West and 30 other places. Car overturned as barricade and constant moving means police unable to stop action. Smoke flare, paint thrown etc. Securix van too heavy to turn over. Ralls Royce which tries to run someone over is wrecked. Still hundreds at St. Pauls, and others running excitedly around (for fun). Leafletting at Bank tube station continues.

12-1 pm Anti-apartheid picket of Barclays forced to move, so visit nearby branches. Jugglers, singers, puppeteers also threatened, and police try to clear Bank again. Traffic blocked. Quiet for a while. A group take 2000 leaflets to GLC 'democracy day' march. Evening Standard quote police being worried about possible link-up. Crèche going well (8 kids). Our own legal back-up people begin to get busy. 30 people 'die-in' on roads at St. Pauls. Cacophony of noise everywhere on the hour. Some of large crowd on steps of Mansion House resist mass arrests. Statues, especially military ones, decorated.

1-2pm Claimants group burn UB40 identity cards at Bank. 30 women visit Fleet St, raid Boots chemist and throw Tampons in the street to protest at their 'luxury item' V.A.T. classification. Protest outside The SUN newspaper also. People again break free of police cordon at Bank, resist their violence and damage bank property - Norwich Union, Leeds Permanent, American International and Moscow Narodny Bank... Spikes to stop traffic thrown in road.

2-3pm More rumpus on the hour? 20 cyclists again stop traffic. Mobile carnival stage with band playing and people following, almost reaches Bank from Tower Hill, but seized by police. Over 200 people held in police cells continue their protests and have fun by making noise and causing floods etc. NatWest Tower entered, files ripped up and fire alarms set off. Police hike knocked over. Groups of 'nuns' and 'stockbrokers' still leafletting. At St Paul's - facepainting, and also 'God is dead' - charge into the Cathedral. Musical and noisy processions around Royal Exchange. Orange smoke flare set off - thrown back by policeman who hits another cop. 200 people go to guildhall courts but are driven back by police - court opened but no-one brought to appear so closes again. (Later we discover 'Princess' Alexandra was due to visit at 3pm).

3-4pm 200 people make human barricade across London Bridge. Traffic stops till police arrive. People begin to congregate at Bank again, spilling into street all around. Lots of chanting, angry and good humoured at the same time! Still many hemmed in. Still groups of leafletters and singers walking around.

4-5pm 1500 people at Bank. Surges into the street and back. London Clearing Bank window smashed as movement of crucial 'City' cheques is disrupted. Stockbrokers' messengers are fouled up. Thousands of workers begin to go home, many watch with interest and often amusement what is going on, as at lunchtime. 350 prisoners held in cells and up to 200 held in police vans. Incredibly, despite police violence people still good humoured, but gradually getting worn out.

5-6pm People hemmed in but relax, and gradually everyone disperses. 3-400 go to block Whitehall and Ministry of Defence in central London as protest against Cruise missile conveyance movements during previous night - and in solidarity with women from Greenham who had blocked its path on the motorway.

It's impossible to do justice to everyone's activities. Throughout the day many people were also hanging around, taking photos or watching. For some, this was the first experience of a self-organised protest and so they were unsure of what to do, the need to come prepared, take initiatives, talk to others etc. Also many were angry yet intimidated by police violence. But also loads of people wanted to join in and kept asking 'what's happening?', 'where's the action?' and so on. Some came for just an hour or two to show support. Everyone made a contribution in their own way.

WHAT WERE THE ACHIEVEMENTS?

Well, it was certainly a day people in 'the City' will remember. The machinery of oppression thrives on appearing invincible, unquestioned and eternal, and our protests have begun slowly to break this spell.

All day workers looked from windows, stood in doorways and on balconies, or walked unburiedly about. No-one seemed threatened, some were prejudiced yet many more seemed excited, thoughtful, amused or provoked to think and discuss with colleagues what was happening and why. Some were surprised and angry at police violence which partly aimed to keep workers and protesters apart. I collected leaflets being distributed by 31 different groups, a dazzling range of opinions and ideas - complemented by graffiti. But there were still many working there who didn't understand or feel involved.

Likewise, many of us benefitted from trying to talk to and understand the people there, their attitudes to work, difficulty in challenging their roles and employers.

As for actually disrupting business - while we were there we certainly had some effect. We enticed people away from their jobs and towards the human community in their midst. Traffic, mostly on business, was often stopped or slowed up all day. The front doors of some buildings were closed, some were picketed, and those around Bank disrupted for ages. And don't forget that some phone lines were blocked by those contributing from home or work to the phone blockade.

Not keen on the police

SIR, — The police have a very high opinion of themselves and at one time a Chief Constable suggested that they should be used for breeding purposes.

The truth of the matter is that the police are the most useless and costly members of society.

They produce nothing and often make a nuisance of themselves by pushing people about and provoking them into criminal activities.

The main responsibility for the existence of the police state obviously lies with the policeman.

Without the mercenary compliant policeman there could be no police states.

The policeman will serve whichever devil happens to be in power, in order to ensure his own survival and well being.

The policeman is the universal pig. They are all tarred with the same brush. They are all capable of behaving in exactly the same way as the Gestapo.

W. Soley, Willobank, Woodvale, Southport.
PS It would be wrong to suggest that I dislike the police. I hate their guts!

"What happened to me was nothing compared to some of the lads in the other cells. There was one lad with 15 stitches in his head — some of them 1½ inches wide — and ten stitches in his upper lip. There was hardly a bone in his body that was not bruised.

"He was so dazed he didn't know his own name and he was vomiting. Police only allowed him back to hospital after the strongest protests from the NUM solicitor.

Six Liverpool gravediggers — members of NUPE — are organising a collection for the Miners' Solidarity Fund. They have also offered their services to Ian MacGregor — free of charge.

The number of arrests in the strike has now topped 3,500. Among the latest to be arrested was Dennis Murphy, leader of the Northumberland miners and an NEC member. Mr. Murphy, who was arrested in London, is the fourth member of the NEC to be seized by police.

"Everyone in their heart of hearts knows we are on a winner." That was the unequivocal message from Kent miners' leader Jack Collins who minted no words: "The pound is knackered, the financial wizards are deeply concerned this Government has badly miscalculated.

"We are on the road to victory and the main question will be the designing of the victory trophy.
"The thing is that we should be making the bastards crawl because if they had the opportunity, that's exactly what they would do to us."

MINERS' SENSE CHANGED BY PICKS WHEN CONFRONTED BY WORKERS POWER! MEMBERS WHO SAID "DO YOU WANT TO BUY A PAPER?"

Sun Dance Kid

A brand new form of entertainment has surfaced on the picket lines...

Christened The Sun Dance, it is largely based on Morris dancing but has a few modern innovations. Its steps are as follows:

A copy of The Sun is placed on the ground and pickets dance on its pages in traditional Morris fashion.

The grubby pages of the paper are then rolled up and thwacked across the head of fellow dancers.

Finally the pages are torn into smaller pieces and symbolically used to perform a well-known toilet function.

The dance could well generate widespread appeal. It should be emphasised, however, that you don't have to be a picket to take part. Suggestions for imaginative new steps would be welcomed by the Editor.

Of The Miner, that is, not The Sun.
